

6516207740.txt

I pay for my xm radio services every month. i listen to it all the time and i don't think it is right for any to say that just because it is commercial free that the FCC should have a say so in it. My parnets also hae an xm radio that they pay for their services also. they should just leave xm alone or lets charge everyone for local channels that you can get for free by just using antanna.